

Notes

Slide 2: Revise the French alphabet as a chant

Use mini whiteboards to spell out words to the class then ask pupils to do this in pairs.

Pupils practise spelling out their own names .

Slide 3 and Slide 4: Ordered alphabetically and by gender.

Slide 5: Use this slide for some listen and repeat then on the next slide see if pupils can recall the nouns.

Slide 6: Use this slide for some listen and repeat work then on the next slide see if pupils can recall the nouns.

Slide 7: Which place is missing? (café)

Slide 8: Which place is missing? (railway station)

Slide 9: Which place is missing? (café)

Slide 18: Tell pupils that raising the tone at the end of a statement is the easiest way to form a question in French.

Slide 20: Introduction to 'il y a'

Slide 21: Introduction to 'il y a'

Slide 22: Pupils answer the question orally as the pictures are revealed.

Slide 25: Pupils answer the question orally as the pictures are revealed.

Slide 26: Ask pupils to discuss in pairs and see if they can identify (NOT necessarily correct) 6 errors).

Slide 36: Ask pupils to make sentences orally first and then on mini whiteboards.

Slide 38: Ask pupils to make sentences orally first and then on mini whiteboards.

Slide 42: Ask pupils to make sentences orally first and then on mini whiteboards.

Slide 44: Ask pupils to make extended sentences orally first and then on mini whiteboards.

Slide 45: Ask pupils to make extended sentences orally first and then on mini whiteboards.

Slide 46: Ask pupils to make extended sentences orally first and then on mini whiteboards.

Pupils can also be asked to work in table groups to present information about Walkington. Other groups listen and decide whether the group is telling the truth or not – one sentence per group.

All pupils asked to write at least one extended sentence in exercise books to describe a place of their choice. Extension – y4 to give an opinion about their chosen place using prior knowledge from year 3. y3 to choose a different place and write a sentence detailing 3 new places in the town.

